
Component curves are fitted medians; names refer to richness at 10,000 km². Regions/types were not used to fit components.